Summer 2022 – Spring 2023

Welcome to our menu!

We are delighted to present to you our selection of shows, ready to entertain your community from Summer 2022 to Spring 2023. We have a brilliant selection of shows, for all different kinds of settings, both indoors and outdoors.

For the first time, we have joined up our indoors and our outdoors menus, giving you the chance to easily browse through the full range of what we have on offer here at Applause. We know that hosts who are booking things for their village hall or indoors community spaces are often involved with other community events or know the people who run them, and therefore might want to book from both our indoors and outdoors programmes - this is us making that easier than ever for you! Whether you're looking for something for your village hall, community picnic, youth centre, school fete, church hall, bandstand, arts centre, high-street or somewhere we've never been before (we love staging things in unusual places), we have a show that will work for you.

First up in this new menu are our indoors shows. We have a brilliant line-up this year, filled with theatre, family shows, puppetry, dance, music and more! These shows are available to book from September 2022 and will take us through to spring 2023. Following on from that you can find our outdoors shows for this summer season (2022). Both programmes work in slightly different ways and have different fee structures, so I've included a handy guide for each programme in the relevant section to take you through it; any questions please do ask!

In addition to this brilliant selection, we will also be releasing a programme of seasonal outdoors shows in the coming months, ready to book for your Christmas light switch ons, Christmas fetes and more, although you may spot one or two festive shows in the indoors season already...

We are excited to launch what is our biggest and most varied menu to date. Across the indoors and outdoors programmes we have some familiar faces with new shows, some returning favourite shows, as well as some exciting new artists. So grab a cuppa, get comfy and take a look through all that could be heading to your community!

I look forward to receiving your requests.

Kind regards,

Alice, Community Engagement Lead

Indoor Shows

Touring from October 2022

We are thrilled to present our selection of shows and performances available to book for Autumn 2022 – Spring 2023, featuring the very best of touring theatre, family shows, music, and storytelling.

Brimming with theatre, family shows, puppetry, dance, music and more, this is our most varied indoors offering to date. With some returning favourite companies as well as some exciting new artists, there is plenty to keep you and your community entertained.

Theatre

This season we have six brilliant theatre productions on offer, including rural touring legends Gonzo Moose with their new comedy horror Is That A Bolt In Your Neck; Applause returner James Rowland shares his new show, Learning To Fly, which intertwines storytelling, music and comedy; Laura Crow also returns with her new play, Earwig, which utilises mime, illustrated projections and more to explore life as a deaf woman in the 1920s. For something interactive, choose from Trevor Lock's Edinburgh sell out We Are Each Other or Small Acts' immersive theatre experience, Future Pub. For traditional theatre with a twist, Suitcase Shakespeare sees two performers bring to life classic tales with just what they have in their suitcase.

Family Theatre

We have a great selection of family shows. Perfect for first-time theatre-goers, Baby Bear has been created for early years audiences (ages 0-3) and includes sensory interaction. For young audiences, Jo Neary's Stinky McFish And The Worst Christmas Wish is perfect for ages 4-9; and Scratchworks Theatre Company's new show Grimm Sisters is ideal for ages 6+. We also have an array of beautiful puppetry productions, including incredible large scale puppetry from The Zoo That Comes To You; the highly skilled Norwich Puppet Theatre stage a seasonal version of the classic tale Red Riding Hood with amazing wooden carved puppets; Lizzie Stewart's prize-winning book There's A Tiger In The Garden is brought to life in a show complete with original music; and Ernie's Journey tells the story of a boy who goes on a magical dream journey in an old pirate ship, complete with circus, poetry, puppetry, magic and even a live music score from a harp!

Just to note that some of the productions and artists featured are touring the country for a limited period, so please send us your requests as soon as possible. We hope you enjoy browsing the wide variety of shows on offer and we look forward to receiving your requests.

Dance

Whilst we have worked with and commissioned dance companies for our outdoors programme for many years, we're thrilled to now have dance as a key part of our indoors offer and we look forward to working with you to get dance into communities across the region. If dance is a new genre for you and you want to discuss how best to promote it, please contact Alice. We are really pleased to bring you three brilliant dance shows, including Casson & Friends' new thought-provoking show PREPPERS, exploring what we really need to survive; for something more escapist, Rejoining Jane is a delightful piece about one woman's adventure to find her long lost brother; finally, if this is your first time hosting a dance show, then the highly experienced AKA Dance Theatre Company are the perfect choice with their joyous show A Real Fiction.

Spoken Word/Poetry/Storytelling

We are pleased to be able to offer a brilliant selection of poets and storytellers, including Rajan Sharma with his show The Mariner's Song, a lyrical voyage which navigates ancient myth, family history, and life at sea; Ruth Cockburn's show Miss Nobodies uses poetry, storytelling and music to share the 100 year history of a local shop; Jess Morgan's Boring Someone in the Dark carefully weaves songs into a narrative about ten glorious years of being a nobody in the music industry; and the experienced storytelling company Troubadour Tales share their show From Out the Wild Woods, which intertwines original writing with folklore and spooky tales!

Music

If you're looking to bring some high-quality music to your community, then look no further than Jazz duo Matt Holborn (violin) and Kourosh Kanani (guitar); for a folk show with a twist, Suthering offer songs of female heroines and heroes; and the award-winning acoustic duo Megson combine vocals, mandola, guitar, piano accordion and whistle in their brilliant performances.

How to book indoors

Hosting with Applause? We are here to help!

At Applause, we are passionate about bringing the very best, high-quality shows directly to your community! We understand the value of the arts in bringing communities together and we are always excited to welcome new hosts into the Applause family. Whether you've hosted 100 shows or this is your first, we are pleased to be working with you and we are here to help.

For indoors shows, we work on a subsidy basis, whereby Applause pays the full price of the show to the performing company and then the hosts pay Applause a contribution, made up of a Minimum Fee, plus 40% of ticket sales in excess of the Minimum Fee. The Minimum Fee is listed with each show in the menu. Occasionally, hosts will opt to pay the full price themselves and then keep the ticket sales, so you may see the full price listed on some shows too.

We try to make hosting an event as easy as possible. We've listed the key steps for you below to give you an idea of what to expect and what you might want to think about:

- 1. Browse the menu. Take a look at what is on offer this season and create a shortlist of the shows and dates that you would like to book and submit your request to Applause. If you're unsure of what show would work well for your audience or you would like to find out more about the shows, then we are more than happy to have a chat and advise.
- 2. We do the admin. Applause will liaise with the artists to agree dates and prepare contracts, so you can focus on marketing the show and making it as successful as possible.
- 3. Get everything ready. Make sure that you have everything in place for your event, such as licenses, insurance, risk assessment etc. Think about wraparound activity such as a workshop or Q&A to add something special to the event, Many of our indoor artists are happy to offer these things, so have a chat with Alice about ideas.

- 4. Market the show. The Applause team are on hand to help make the show a success and have lots of handy tips on how to market your show. We will also supply you with a range of marketing assets that you might need.
- 5. Ticket sales. We are able to support hosts in selling tickets through our online ticketing system on our website. Additionally, many hosts sell tickets in their community at the local shop, hairdressers etc. and we can supply ticket templates for physical tickets if this would be useful. Recommended ticket prices are given on each show page as a guideline.
- 6. It's show time! Enjoy the show! On the day of the show we will ask you to help us collect some audience feedback (this is really important in helping us to secure our funding and continue to support shows like yours).
- 7. After the event. You will need to pay for the show/s. We will also ask you to complete some feedback about your experience.

If you are new to rural touring and would like to receive additional information or find out more about what being a host means then please email our Community Engagement Lead, Alice, on touring@applause.org.uk

We look forward to working with you soon!

Is That A Bolt In Your Neck?

Wonderfully inventive and gripping comedy horror

A castle looms dark and foreboding over a small mountain village. Inside, Dr Chekhov, the brilliant and reclusive scientist, works in secret.

The villagers live in dread. Strange shadows can be seen at the windows, and every night blood curdling cries of pain can be heard. What is Dr Chekhov doing? What hideous experiments is he perpetrating? What unimaginable horror might emerge from his laboratory?

All will be revealed in this wonderfully inventive and gripping comedy horror featuring three fearless actors, playing over 20 roles in 75 minutes of fast-paced fun and thrilling action

Suitable for audiences from ages 8 to 80, the show is packed full of hilarious slapstick, verbal wit, and magical illusion.

James Rowland produced by Attic

Learning to Fly by James Rowland

A new show about James' childhood friendship with an old lady who lived down his street.

A new show from James Rowland featuring his captivating mix of theatre, comedy and music.

LEARNING TO FLY sees James tell the story of a remarkable friendship he made when he was a lonely, unhappy teenager with the scary old lady who lived in the spooky house on his street. It's about connection, no matter what the obstacles; about love's eternal struggle with time; about music and its ability to heal. It's also about her last wish: to get high once before she dies.

Uplifting, big-hearted and hilarious.

Acclaim for James: ***** 'Joyous... flooded with love'
Stage **** 'Captivating... a generous, deepening hymn to friendship'

Time & Again Theatre Company

Earwig

Earwig follows the life of Marigold Webb, a deaf insect collector living in 1927. Alongside traditional spoken word, it incorporates illustrations and captioning (in the style of 1920s silent movies!)

Marigold's research into beetles is unparalleled but as a deaf woman in 1927, her work is ignored. New writing combining the weird, wonderful world of entomology with Marigold's fight to be heard amidst flappers, jazz, and an overbearing husband.

Alongside traditional spoken word, the show incorporates mime, moments of silence, and illustrated projections and captioning in the style of 1920s silent movies! EARWIG is written by deaf and neurodivergent writer, Laura Crow, who also penned Time & Again's previous successful shows CLOUDS (2019) and GREYHOUNDS (2018).

EARWIG is fun and fast-paced, audiences will feel like they've stepped through the fourth wall and into the organised chaos of a 1920s silent movie.

The Grimm Sisters

The Grimm Sisters present their marvellous mix of storytelling, comedy & live music. Joyous, interactive family theatre!

Would you like to hear a remarkable story? We promise it will only be a little bit gory... We are two sisters, The Sisters Grimm. One is quite clever and one is quite musical. Our tales are greater than any others, but they were stolen by our beastly brothers! Now we must journey to fix their lies, or else the birds will pluck out our eyes!

You know the Brothers Grimm? The famous storytellers... or story stealers more like! Brunhilda & Mitzi were the true brains behind the books, but thanks to a treacherous father, a nasty curse and a great big dollop of bad luck, you've probably never heard of them.

The Grimm Sisters are here to set the record straight. Join them on the journey as they tell their twisted tales with a marvellous mix of comedy, singing & live music.

The Zoo That Comes To You

A joyous puppet show inviting people of all ages to join the conversation about animal conservation.

The Zoo That Comes To You follows the efforts of two wildlife enthusiasts who provide respite, care or a temporary home to those in need. They now have a sanctuary full of animals, however, no one has come to visit their zoo. So, everybody - animals and humans alike - have decided it is time to get out, see the world, and bring the zoo, to you!

Come and meet this eclectic group of charming yet cheeky animals, as they discuss their life experiences and the challenges they face. These chatty animals have a lot of stories to tell and want to inspire people of all ages to take action, because they know small actions can make a big difference in the world.

Aimed at ages 4+ but welcome younger audience members and unaccompanied grown-ups.

"The Zoo That Comes to You" was a highlight of the Exeter Fringe Festival. A perfect balance of entertainment, education and beautiful design, the performance pulls you in and helps bring to life the issue of wildlife conservation. Even as an adult I learnt loads and thoroughly enjoyed the show. I wouldn't hesitate to welcome back Scarlet Oak Theatre for future festivals."

Red Riding Hood

We all know the story of Little Red Riding Hood, but which story do we know?

Norwich Puppet Theatre's retelling of this classic folktale draws on the story's origins in the oral tradition, together with versions by Charles Perrault and the Brothers Grimm.

Following the path to her grandmother's house, through a forest filled with howling wolves. Red Riding Hood, a charcoal-burner's daughter, needs to use her wits in order to survive.

Follow our eponymous heroine into the woods where you can expect a rich mix of puppetry, music, song, inventive staging and witty dialogue.

With beautiful and characterful puppets made by master puppet maker, Peter O'Rourke, witty and enchanting songs by composer Ben Glasstone and a sparkling script by Tim Kane this production is a feast of puppetry, song and comedy.

Flock Theatre Makers

There's A Tiger In The Garden

Flock Theatre Makers share a new piece of musical theatre to bring Nora's story to young audiences

Using puppetry, imaginative design and music - audiences are invited to join Nora as she discovers dragonflies as big as her head, plants that can eat you (and your toy giraffe) whole, a polar bear that likes fishing and maybe, just possibly, a tiger in the garden. Exploring the power of the imagination, we invite families to follow Nora as she discovers the wonders lurking beneath the hydrangeas and hidden beyond the shrubbery. Come and listen, play, engage and enjoy the brilliance of this story brought to life for the first time.

Working closely with the author, this much-loved book has been turned into a theatre piece that promises fun for all the family.

Ernie's Journey

It felt like nobody really believed in Ernie and sometimes he wondered whether he even believed in himself.

Ernie's Journey is a magical circus theatre adventure for family audiences. The seamless integration of circus, physical theatre, stage magic, poetry and puppetry is a truly dazzling spectacle. An original live harp score takes the tale from the dreamy realms of distant shores to the most raucous sea shanties!

This show is particularly enchanting for 4-11 year olds but the high skill circus will amaze audiences of all ages.

It felt like nobody really believed in Ernie and sometimes he wondered whether he even believed in himself. He discovers that being himself and following his own dreams can lead to all kinds of adventure, but it is the people we love who make it all worth it.

This show has been designed to connect audiences with the waterways around where they live and how they feed into the national and international ocean systems.

Miss Nobodies

This funny, poignant and heart-warming story will make you think about what the next 100 years will hold for us.

This two-hander play takes us through the history of the last 100 years in a shop in a Lancashire town.

The show mixes poetry, storytelling and music, to tell the story of a local shop spanning 100 years from 1919 to present day. Telling of the women that have made up the shop's history, whilst also showing how the lives of women have changed over the last century.

Miss Nobodies, was inspired by outreach done online and in the community of Great Harwood alongside research into local history and prominent figures of Lancashire. One such person is Ethel Carnie Holdsworth. A writer that worked in the mills in the early part of the last century. She is sited as the first working class, female novelist in the UK and parts of her poetry are used throughout the play to punctuate the story. The themes of the show cover social responsibility, civic duty and local pride, whilst touching on female solidarity, life choices and loneliness.

Jess Morgan

Boring Someone in the Dark

Meet Jess - the hardest working folk-singer-songwriter you've
NEVER heard of.

Jess lives in London, in a flat above a carwash, spending her days churning out demos, hustling for gigs just waiting for that call from Jools Holland. She's young, single-minded and ambitious to get out on the road...at any cost. It's the oldest rock and roll story ever told.

So, what happens when after ten years on tour, the sleepy rural town Jess grew up resolute to leave behind suddenly glitters with possibility - something more promising than fame, and more life-changing than a spin on Radio 2..? Will she hang around long enough to find out?

With songs carefully knitted into the narrative, this show tells the story of ten glorious years being a nobody in the music industry.

"The sort of thing you put on your headphones when walking alone and wanting to feel like you're in your own gritty British love story." (TRASH magazine).

Troubadour Tales

From Out the Wild Woods

You might be laughing, but we're not out of the woods yet!

Many are the dangers that lurk beyond the hearth, Far within the forest and off the beaten path, But little child, little child, it's urgent that you know, The worst of monsters watches you wherever you may go...

After years of performing in castles and stately homes, Troubadour Tales are pleased to bring their storytelling to a new audience and to present their new show.

Inspired by stories from the primeval forests that once covered Europe, this is a show for all the family, at times dark, and at others, funny. Ozren and Starac travel the roads visiting towns and villages to pass on their stories and the wisdom and warnings they contain. Some stories you may think you know, others will be completely new.

Troubadour Tales's shows are lively and interactive performances that combine physical comedy, gruesome humour, improvisation, a little chaos, and some bad puns.

Suthering

Suthering

Suthering combines the musical talents of Julu Irvine and Heg Brignall. A couple in life and in music with an unusual and fresh approach to folk. Julu and Heg are true storytellers who champion female characters, creating new narratives for women and unearthing the female heroines of folk.

A concert of powerful songs, weaving stories with crisp vocal harmonies to create an experience filled with beautiful, empowering, pure sound.

What sets them apart is their wonderful chemistry and charisma on stage, natural humour and two beautifully matched voices. With an unusual mix of cascading, dramatic piano; intricate, fingerstyle guitar; flute, whistles and harmonium, Julu and Heg bring an exciting take on folk storytelling with their evocative and distinctive sound.

Last February Suthering released their debut album, 'If We Turn Away', which explores themes of community, connection, environment and conscience is very much a reflection of the times we are living in and has been influenced by the duo's experiences during the pandemic. Each song is carefully crafted and arranged, telling tales of struggle and triumph against all odds; from both their own lives and from stories they have found.

Matt Holborn and Kourosh Kanani

A dynamic and acoustic jazz duo showcasing different forms of improvised jazz and folk music.

Matt Holborn (violin) and Kourosh Kanani (guitar) have been partners in jazz for more than a decade, taking the acoustic stylings of Django Reinhardt and the sound of Jazz Manouche as inspiration to create their own improvisational language.

This dynamic acoustic jazz duo is a unique showcase of two young musicians at the top of their game. The show is a mixture of their favourite jazz standards, American show tunes and the old swing of Django Reinhardt with an added sprinkle of some of the various forms of folk music from Eastern Europe, Iran and India that has influenced their individual styles. Both Matt and Kourosh have travelled the world playing at various jazz festivals and venues.

Outdoor Shows

Summer Season 2022

We are delighted to present our selection of shows and performances available for booking in summer 2022. Containing a variety of shows suitable for all ages, ranging from static and durational performances (short shows that are repeated several times in a day), to walkabout shows (highly interactive shows that are performed within a certain time frame), this menu showcases the very best of outdoor shows in rural touring.

This season we have a selection of puppetry shows, including Enter Edem's The Ugly Bugs Wingding, which sees musical, big, Ugly Bugs tell a tale inspired by the fantastical story of the Butterflies Ball and Grasshoppers feast; Applause regulars Rust and Stardust, return with their new show Cackle Street Cats; the innovative puppetry company Half A String will take you on an adventure to find the pinky-est pink paint on the planet in their ingenious Puppet Van; encounter the characters Red Riding Hood and the Wolf like never before in Frolicked's modern adaptation of the classic story in Seeing Red; and encounter large scale puppetry from the brilliant Smoking Apples in their new environmental show Buzz.

If you're looking for some dance, then Fish Out of Water from Michaela Cisarikova Dance Company is an exhilarating and thought-provoking piece exploring otherness, and Get Lost, the new show from international dance artist Joe Garbett, sees a giant map become the dance floor in this fun and unifying show that explores male friendship.

For an interactive experience, Rhiannon Armstrong's Poems Made from Words Found in the Bin asks people to create and contribute to an online collection of poetry, and the Bell Orchestra invites participants to join together in creating a piece of music.

For something awe-inspiring to win over the crowds, choose from circus company Hands Down's Circus' show Tape That, or Charmaine Childs' Strong Enough, which sees our very own strong lady complete tricks in this an uplifting and moving celebration of the extraordinary strength of ordinary people.

We're really excited to also bring you a selection of spectacular shows suitable to host in the daytime and evening, with the ingenious Sound Catchers, which incorporates music, sound, circus, movement and technology in this stilt-walking light show, and the Bell Orchestra's night-time version transforms the bells in to a beautiful up-lit experience.

And, of course, we also have a series of walkabout shows available to book, including the returning favourites Tree Fellas as well as new shows The Dustbusters and Sound Catchers, plus the hilarious Campers which incorporates both static and walkabout elements in to the hilarious adventure.

With such a wide variety of shows, there is something suitable for a whole host of settings, including fetes, festivals, community picnics, high streets and more. Our shows have been specifically created for small scale outdoor touring, and all of our artists are used to performing in unusual spaces, so if you've got an idea for a new space in your community that you think live performance would work well in, just give us a call and we'll happily talk it through with you.

Please note that all shows have full risk assessments and adhere to current government guidance. We hope you enjoy browsing and we look forward to receiving your requests.

Hosting with Applause? We are here to help.

At Applause, we are passionate about bringing the very best, high-quality shows directly to your community! We understand the value of the arts in bringing communities together and we are always excited to welcome new hosts into the Applause family. Whether you've hosted 100 shows or this is your first, we are pleased to be working with you and we are here to help.

Alongside professional programmers we work with volunteer promoters supporting them to host an Applause show at their community event. Through our Arts Council funding we can subsidise show fees to enable communities to have direct access to live performance on their doorstep.

If you're new to hosting an Applause show at your event we try and make the process of booking as easy as possible. We've listed the key steps for you below to give you an idea of what to expect and what you might want to think about:

- 1. Browse the menu. Take a look at what is on offer this season and create a shortlist of the shows and dates that you would like to book and submit your request to Applause. If you're unsure of what shows would work well for your audience or you would like to find out more about them, then we are more than happy to have a chat and advise.
- 2. Applause will liaise with the artists to agree dates, draw up the contracts so you can focus on making your event as successful as possible.
- 3. Get everything ready. Make sure that you have everything in place for your event, such as licenses, insurance, risk assessment etc. Think about wraparound activity. Perhaps you'd like to host a community picnic alongside your show/s to increase engagement, or maybe you'd be interested in one of our workshops to add something special to the event? Have a chat with Alice about ideas and what our artists can offer to help make your event the best it can be!

- 4. Market the event. The Applause team are on hand to help and have lots of handy tips on how to market the show. We will also supply you with a range of marketing assets that you might need.
- 5. Enjoy the show! On the day of your event we will ask you to help us collect some audience feedback (this is really important in helping us to secure our funding and continue to support shows like yours).
- 6. After the event. You will need to pay for the show/s. We will also ask you to complete some feedback about your experience.

Just to note that some of the productions and artists featured in this menu have limited availability, so please send us your booking requests as soon as possible. For our new commissions we can't guarantee their availability before 1 May, but you can book any of our returning favourites if your event is before this date.

If you are new to rural touring and would like to receive additional information or find out more about what being a Host means then please email our Community Engagement Lead, Alice, on touring@applause.org.uk

We look forward to working with you soon!

MCDC - Michaela Cisarikova Dance Company

Fish Out of Water

Fish Out Of Water is an ambitious, fresh, multi-disciplinary outdoor dance performance which explores themes of belonging, otherness, displacement and migrancy.

Be immersed in an interactive world of hip hop & contemporary dance, colourful sculptures and responsive live, upbeat music inspired by our audience's diversity and multinationalism.

The dancers take the audience on a journey of self-discovery, showing that everyone faces challenges in life, but that we are stronger together. Audiences can interact with the sculptural set design, made of repurposed wood and colourful acrylic, constructing the sculptures in new ways, as well bringing their own dance moves to the performance.

Randolph Matthews' unique and responsive sound design brings freshness to each performance, as he draws on the audience's interaction to create community-driven soundscapes.

Enter Edem

The Ugly Bugs Wingding!

"Hurrah Hurray oh fabulous day, the Ugly Bugs Wingding has flown in to town! What a mesmerising jubilee for your eyes and ears! Come into a magical miniature world to meet an array of enticing insects and colourful creatures on their way to an un-bee-lievable party!"

The Ugly Bugs Wingding is an entrancing short puppetry show for all the family, with a beautiful puppet theatre unfolding as musical big Ugly Bugs tell a tale inspired by the fantastical book the Butterflies Ball and Grasshoppers feast.

This new work from Enter Edem has a celebratory theme (highlighting the natural world in a time of 'insect thinning' and environmental crisis) humanizing the characters and offering a perfect fit for the Queens Jubilee.

Enter Edem are a collective of multi-skilled artists, who have joined together to create unique conceptual experiences.

Through our innovative approach combining entertainment with enlightening stories and ideas, the experiences and installations created are unconventional, thrilling and ultimately inspiring.

Smoking Apples

Buzz

A Bee-riliant Adventure!

Join Billy Bumble as he shrinks down to bee-size and learns about the troubles that they face. Featuring spell-binding puppetry and a giant honeycomb set, join us for a whirlwind ride, avoiding grumpy Mr Fred and the gaping jaws of Shredder the dog!

Buzz finishes with the audience being given wildflower seeds, to plant and help our black and yellow friends to flourish.

The show includes a playful look at scale (think micro-scale for major fun) and some light-hearted audience engagement, giving the audience a chance to see things from a Bees-eye-view.

Featuring a blend of puppetry (large-scale and table-top), captivating music and bright, colourful visuals, Buzz is a chance for families to learn about the importance of Bees in our ecosystem and what we can all do, at home, to help them thrive.

Co-commissioned by Applause, Derby Fest and Tunbridge Wells Puppetry Festival.

Frolicked

Seeing Red

A story telling/puppetry show that is a modern reworking of the classic fairy tale Red Riding Hood.

Seeing Red tells the tale of a girl who learns how to take matters into her own hands and become master of her own fate.

A furry suitcase unfolds into a wolf. A Grandma has a fiery passion. A little girl finds out that it's ok to get angry sometimes. And a twist sees Little Red become the true heroine of this classic tale.

Full of red-related surprises, a dose of humour, a mini mob of original puppet characters, and some very special effects, all crammed into a massive, furry suitcase,.

Watch out Wolfie - Little Red is in town!

Frolicked is an outdoor theatre company specialising in unique, visually striking experiences for outdoor audiences and unusual locations. Captivating people of all ages and nationalities, and featuring beautifully crafted characters, our self-devised shows and games are interactive, engaging and a little bit magical...

Hands Down Circus

Tape That

Tape That is a charming, light-hearted acrobatic duet by Hands Down Circus. Two performers construct a visual web using duct tape, object manipulation and partner acrobatics.

A simple roll of tape transforms from a skipping rope to a hat, and is stretched to create physical barriers and obstacles for the performers to navigate over, under and through.

Tape That is a playful exploration of the world we live in; in times of shifting opinions, breakdowns in communication and growing divisions in society, how do we navigate our differences with humanity and support?

When conflicts appear and squabbling arises - will anyone ever agree if it's called duct tape or duck tape?!

Hands Down Circus is a new contemporary circus company creating original work in the UK. Hands Down Circus was a Roundhouse Resident Artist 2019/20.

Originally commissioned by Applause and the Roundhouse in partnership with FiraTàrrega's Support for Creation programme.

Rhiannon Armstrong

Poems Made from Words Found in the Bin

"An attempt to make something beautiful and true from shreds of discarded paper."

Poems Made from Words Found in the Bin is part performance, part creative writing workshop, and a digital art intervention.

Members of the public are invited to join Rhiannon in creating poems made from shredded documents which are then animated and added to a growing collection, written by people in Portsmouth, Lincoln, Brighton, The Hebrides and London.

The animated poems are uploaded onto the Slow GIF Movement channel on Giphy (with 39 million views), which allows your poem to be read and shared globally on messaging apps and social media.

Once your poem is part of the collection it can go on to be screened in other places as the project travels, including (so far) advertising billboards in Brighton, Victorious Festival in Portsmouth, and Wellcome Collection in London.

Developed for outdoor touring with support from Applause.

Fever Birds

The Campers

A hilarious comic walkabout and show that will have you in stitches!

Cindy and Judith have set off on their annual charity work do, and this year, they're camping for conjunctivitis. They've found the perfect pitch and are impatiently awaiting the arrival of Mary, their manager (and friend) only to find out she's stuck in traffic and won't be arriving any time soon. To make matters worse, she has all of Judith's camping equipment and snacks in her car.

Judith, who already misses the comfort of the city, is forced to rely on the strained generosity of the practical and prepared Cindy, who is somewhat reluctant to share her carefully planned rations.

In an attempt to make the most of the situation, the ladies go rambling across the heavily privatised countryside where they encounter feisty land owners and a rampant bull.

The farcical events unfold through a blend of physical comedy, vegetable puppetry and 90's pop classics.

Charmaine Childs / Strong Lady Productions

Strong Enough

Strong Enough is an uplifting and moving celebration of the extraordinary strength of ordinary people.

A circus Strong Lady uses the physical strength in circus skills to reveal the inner strength of the stories she has collected from people around the UK - stories about times when they have been strong in their lives. The soundtrack is peppered with the voices of people telling their stories in their own words, mixed with verbal storytelling and with a highly physical physical storytelling style.

Feats of strength, circus tricks, acro-dance and comedy weave together to deliver an uplifting, empowering and moving message: we are strong enough.

Audience Responses included: "I really needed to hear that" "Inspiring" "That made me feel really powerful" - wonderfully many many people left the show telling me or each other about their own experiences of being resilient, determined, and persistent.

Strong Enough was a 2021 Commission by: Without Walls Consortium + Hat Fair+ Just So Festival.

Feasible Ferret Theatre

The Dustbusters

Are dust bunnies running wild? Have spiderwebs taken over? Then you need, The Dustbusters, sassy and silver-topped domestic goddesses from yesteryear.

With only their trusty cleaning trolley, elbow grease and a pinch of bicarbonate of soda, these homely and high-spirited housekeepers are determined to make all things spick and span. But it's not all work and no play for these slapstick scrubbers. Mildred, Mavis and Martha look for any excuse to set down their dusters for a cuppa and a chinwag.

Accompanied by hearty and wholesome tunes, you won't be able to stop yourself from joining in for a boogie as they make things prim and proper. Brimming with comical cleaning expertise, The Dustbusters will have the world looking pristine, as long as you keep off their freshly mopped floors!

A comical walkabout act for family audiences of all ages and communities. The eye-catching, musical, interactive and whimsical Dusterbusters will have audiences laughing, dancing and dusting with their larger-than-life personalities and unique approach to housekeeping.

Sound Catchers

Sound Catchers

The Sound Catchers are here to try and understand humanity by harvesting it's rhythms through sounds and movement. But where have they come from and what do they want?

The Sound Catchers will interact with you to create dance and music that you can join in with. Live percussion, dance and cutting edge creative and digital technologies come together to create fascinating and fun show that is different every time.

Sound Catchers is a new concept for an outdoor roaming performance developed by dance artist Jess Murray and musician Mitch Oldham. Stilted percussionists and dancers portray 'alien' characters that are gathering sounds and rhythms to understand the human species.

Sound Catchers is an inclusive and interactive walk around experience for intergenerational audiences. The show will perform using real time sound sampling, and wearable tech props that produce sound and light in response to movement. The light up costumes and props make Sound Catchers suited to both daytime and night time performances.

Frank Wurzinger

Tree Fellas

A hilarious, interactive comedy walkabout about a tree family looking for somewhere to settle down.

As the forests are getting smaller and smaller the tree family decide to live with the humans.

Our walking and talking trees blend in with human behaviour, interact and cause gentle chaos by putting down roots in the wrong place, telling stories about their ancient lives, playing games with the humans and bringing nature's beauty to town.

Two oversized trees and one sapling puppet - talk, walk, tease and misbehave and they have a story to tell...

Walkabout theatre for audiences of all ages. Very adaptable to different audiences and environments.

Frank is a theatre maker, workshop leader, actor, director and modern clown whose interest in performing started as a teenager learning circus skills... He has won awards, sold out at fringe festivals, taught movement at drama schools, devised shows with refugees and has co-produced the most adorable daughters in the world.
