How to book indoors

At Applause, we are passionate about bringing the very best, high-quality shows directly to your community! We understand the value of the arts in bringing communities together and we are always excited to welcome new hosts into the Applause family. Whether you've hosted 100 shows or this is your first, we are pleased to be working with you and we are here to help.

What is Applause?

We work with communities to help them host top quality professional touring productions and performers in their local venues and spaces. Whether it be a show for a village hall or an outdoor performance at your village fete or community celebration, Applause can help.

Being a Community Host

An Applause host can be an individual or voluntary group, parish council, village hall committee, school or publican - anyone invested in bringing social and creative opportunities to their community.

Our menu of events lists our Spring and Autumn/Winter 25 season of touring shows available to book. While many of our shows have general availability throughout the season, some of the companies'/performers' dates are within limited touring periods. If you are interested in a specific act, we advise booking early to avoid disappointment.

We are here to help you decide, so please contact us, and we can discuss the best options for your community space.

The Detail in 7 steps

We try to make hosting an event as easy as possible. We've listed the key steps for you below to give you an idea of what to expect and what you might want to think about:

- 1. Browse the menu. Think about who you want to attract in the community, is it an adult audience, a show for families? Are you looking for music or for a theatre experience? Get in touch and let us know your preferences or for some advice about choosing.
- 2. Applause will liaise with the artists to agree dates and prepare contracts. For indoors shows, we work on a subsidy basis, whereby Applause pays the full price of the show to the performers and then the hosts pay us a contribution, made up of a Minimum Fee, plus 40% of ticket sales in excess of the Minimum Fee. The Minimum Fee is listed with each show in the menu.
- 3. Get everything ready. We will put you in touch with the touring company so that you can make arrangements for event day, such as performer arrival times. Remember that your event will need to have the necessary licenses and insurance in place. We can help advise you on this.
- 4. Market the show. Applause will be on hand to help make the show a success and have lots of handy tips on how to market your show. We will also supply you with a range of marketing materials.
- 5. Ticket sales. We can support hosts in selling tickets through our online ticketing system on our website. Additionally, many hosts sell tickets in their local community and we can supply templates for physical tickets if this would be useful. Recommended ticket prices are given on each show page as a guideline.
- 6. It's show time! On the day of the show we will ask you to help us collect some audience feedback (this is really important in helping us to secure our funding and continue to support shows like yours).
- 7. After the event. You will return a feedback form and we will invoice you for the relevant fee.

Lily Ramona

Lily Ramona

Lily Ramona is nothing short of Alt Folk Royalty

If you love Suzanne Vega, or Joni Mitchell, Lily will surely captivate your ears.

As a member of the Joe Boyd endorsed HANK DOGS (Nick Drake, Vashti Bunyan, REM, John Martin) she toured all over, including the US with Joan Baez. Joe said the Hank Dogs were "the first British act he'd loved in 30 Years".

Now an established artist in her own right, Lily is often compared to Joni Mitchell, Beth Orton and Suzanne Vega. Captivating audiences by creating a sound which is both traditional and modern. Her vocals embody a freshness and natural charm that reflect a pure love of melody and the joy of singing. With a nod to traditional and technical aspects of the Folk genre, her playing retains a real freshness and abandonment which is a perfect compliment to her vocals.

Hamlet

The most moving and memorable Shakespeare you'll see this year.

A brand new one person Hamlet. 90 minutes straight through. Unlike any Hamlet you have seen before.

Director Fiona Laird (RSC, National Theatre, WNO, West End and Broadway) and actor Mark Lockyer (RSC, The Globe, National, Bristol Old Vic) have produced the most gripping new version of Hamlet. Preserving Shakespeare's lines and phrases we love so well but bringing fresh eyes to it through the company's deep understanding of the characters and their psychological drivers.

With standing ovations at its preview performances, it will leave you moved and awed.

Mark Lockyer has been described as 'the best classical actor that got away'. Mark's theatre credits include major roles in The Alchemist, The Tempest, Romeo and Juliet, King Lear, and The Taming of the Shrew all at the Royal Shakespeare company, Laertes in Hamlet at the Globe (dir. Mark Rylance), Malvolio in Twelfth Night at the Bristol Old Vic, and Good, Theatre of Blood, Bartholemew Fair, and Fuente Ovejuna at the National Theatre

Pepper & Honey

Pepper & Honey; a story of identity, belonging, and biscuits...

Ana has been on a journey. Croatian born, she's arrived in the UK, determined to make it home. As she focuses on life in this new land, she is haunted by the voice of her Grandma- calling for her to stay true to national identity and yearning for Ana to come home. As Grandma bakes her traditional Croatian pepper biscuits (believed to bring a loved one back home), will this be enough to be reunited with her granddaughter? But what is "home" to Ana now?

Written by Croatian playwright, Kristina Gavran, and performed by Croatian actor, Tina Hofman, Pepper & Honey is a poignant, subtle and timely play about the journey of change, cultural differences, and the conflict between upholding the traditions of the "old country" and embracing those of the new.

Originally devised in 2018, this story finds new resonance as the UK becomes home to people displaced by war and economic crisis. Pepper & Honey manages these challenging and often polarising issues with a heart-warming, personal approach, and speaks to the need for tolerance and the power of human connection.

Joy!

Bring a little joy into your life with a poet and raconteur at the top of his game.

Luke Wright's Silver Jubilee proved that in his 40s Wright is making the best work of his life ("the best thing he's done and that's saying something."  Telegraph) JOY is an even more ambitious show, drilling down into a the slippery concept of joy, with some outrageous pieces of spoken word, inventive uses of poetic form and some utterly heart-wrenching moments. And there's a stack of great gags to boot.

"Breathtaking ... with a sharpness and wisdom that lifts the soul, and soothes the battered heart." * The Scotsman (2023)

The French novelist Henry de Montherlant said that "happiness writes white" but Wright's not exactly starting with a blank page. In his new show the Fringe's favourite poet writes urgently and warmly about family, fatherhood, and the joy of language itself.

"The best exploration of love, family and belonging I have ever had the pleasure of seeing."  The Student (2023)

Two Fools

Two Fools meet on the Drina Bridge, one to jump, the other to leap, but both are about to discover that this is no accidental meeting.

'Two Fools' sees two of Shakespeare's Fools meet on The Bridge over the Drina.

One Fool, Lear's Fool, has come to jump, the other Dogberry has come to make a leap of faith, as represented in the Tarot. What follows is a discourse on the fool in theatre, religion and the fool in a society run by fools.

However, this is a story with dark undertones, as the Drina Bridge was notorious during the Balkan Wars as a place of mass execution. It transpires that this is no chance meeting and Dogberry is the secret policeman both in art and reality.

A pact is made and a challenge set. This absurd play has overtones of Godot and yet also plays homage to the great British tradition of comedy double acts of the straight man and comic.

This two-hander play takes us through the history of the last 100 years in a shop in a Lancashire town. This funny, poignant and heart-warming story will resonate with all ages and will make you think about what the next 100 years will hold for us.

It's perfect for audiences young and old with beautiful puppets, catchy tunes some of which had moves to copy along too and an uplifting tale of self-acceptance for all the family... Just so pure and lovely. Truly a delightful little show. My daughter keeps asking to "go back to yaks" over and over again. She loved seeing the different musical illustrations and the scene under the stars made my heart glow."

The Wishing Tree

What will you wish for?

You have three wishes, one for yourself, one for your community and one for the whole world... What will you wish for?

"The Wishing Tree" is a fun, interactive and playful storytelling show written and performed by award winning author Bernadette Russell.

It is joyful, hopeful and adaptable, can be performed in any space both indoors and outdoors, and is toured on public transport in a suitcase. It contains opportunities to be characters in the stories, and join in with sound effects, dancing and singing.

The show contains three interlocking stories: "The Swaplings": about a boy who learns some valuable lessons from the wild creatures in his local park, "Hope Bird" about a girl whose best friends are the birds, who eventually learns to fly, and "The Wishing Tree" a story about how precious trees are, and how we can help each other make our dreams come true.

The show ends with the audience invited to choose their own "Wishing Tree" near their home. Every child is given a bark or paper star to remember the stories and encouraged to tell the story to someone else as soon as possible, thereby creating lots of new storytellers.
